

February was a month filled with a wide array of spiritual, cultural, and sporting events. The celebration of the 40th Prathistha Mahotsav of Shree Munisvratswami Jinalay was the climax. These were significant moments for everyone involved. It was lovely to hear about the diverse activities, from religious rituals to creative events like "Mandala Magic" at the Oshwal Library to tournaments in the sports arena. Community events such as the Oshwal Premier League (cricket), Telegames and Fancy Dress Competitions seem to have added an extra layer of excitement and engagement for all ages. It's always wonderful to be part of a Community that values its traditions while also embracing new and creative expressions. I hope these events brought joy and fulfillment to all who participated!

NEUROTHERAPISTS

On Tuesday, 20th February 2024, a lively Antakshari session took place in the C&P lobby. Seniors gathered to sing their favorite songs, creating a joyful and interactive atmosphere. As the event continued, participants enthusiastically took turns, connecting songs based on the last letter of the previous one. Laughter and music filled the air as everyone joined in the fun. The session ended on a high note with a sense of camaraderie among the participants.

On Tuesday, 27th February 2024, an engaging talk and workshop focused on the principles and practices of homeopathy took place in the C & P lobby. Participants gathered to delve into the world of homeopathic medicine, exploring its holistic approach to health and well-being.

The session covered fundamental concepts of homeopathy, discussing the belief in the body's ability to heal itself and the use of highly diluted natural substances to stimulate this healing process. Attendees had the opportunity to learn about the philosophy behind homeopathy and its application in addressing various health concerns. The event likely encouraged interactive discussions and practical insights, providing a valuable platform for those interested in exploring alternative and complementary approaches to healthcare.

SENIOR SOCIAL COMMITTEE

On Sunday, 25th February 2024, a remarkable senior social event took place that provided a platform for individuals with disabilities to courageously share their personal stories. The event extended its invitation not only to the individuals themselves but also to their families, fostering a space of understanding and empathy. Attendees were deeply moved as they gained insight into the challenges faced by these individuals and the resilience they exhibit in their daily lives.

The overarching theme of the event was one of empowerment and encouragement. They shared a saying: "Disability is not inability," which means just because someone has a disability doesn't mean they can't do great things. Speakers conveyed messages of perseverance, urging those with disabilities to never give up and to cultivate self-love, telling everyone to keep going and believe in themselves. They said it's important for people with disabilities to never give up and to like themselves just the way they are. At the same time, families were reminded to accept and love their family members with disabilities, showing them kindness and understanding. It was a powerful message of support and love for everyone involved.

Adding a vibrant touch to the occasion, a live band was present to uplift the atmosphere and engage the audience. Through their music, the band succeeded in creating a lively and positive ambiance, encouraging active participation from the crowd. The combination of heartfelt stories, motivational messages, and musical performances worked harmoniously to make this senior social event a truly inspiring and memorable experience for all who attended.

The event was sponsored by Indiraben and Dhanubhai Chandaria.

SENIOR SOCIAL COMMITTEE

On Sunday, 17th March 2024, we hosted a vibrant senior social music event “Sangeet Thi Bharali Mojmazaa” held at Dinesh & Mahesh Chandaria Auditorium. The setup was carefully arranged, with seniors seated in a circular formation, each individual eagerly awaiting their turn to showcase their musical talents. As the melodies filled the air, the atmosphere was charged with energy, laughter, and a palpable sense of joy. It was a heartwarming sight to witness these esteemed seniors, handpicked for their vocal prowess, taking center stage one by one, regaling the audience with their songs. The event transcended mere entertainment; it served as a testament to the enduring bonds and cherished memories that unite us as a Community.

The event was sponsored by Vipingo Group.

Two talented musicians infused energy into the event by serenading the audience with a diverse selection of songs tailored to suit the occasion and the requests of the attendees. With their skillful renditions and dynamic performances, they kept the atmosphere lively and engaging, captivating the audience with their melodies. Their ability to adapt to the mood of the event and accommodate the preferences of the audience ensured that everyone present had a memorable and enjoyable experience. Their musical contributions added an extra layer of excitement and entertainment, enhancing the overall success of the event.

The event culminated in an interactive session that invited the crowd to participate actively. To spice things up, a random selection of seniors was chosen to take part in a series of entertaining challenges. Each senior was assigned a unique task, ranging from reciting tongue twisters with precision to solving mathematics calculations on the spot, or even belting out a tune. The diverse range of tasks ensured that there was something for everyone, eliciting laughter and excitement from both participants and spectators alike. Those who successfully completed their tasks were rewarded, adding an element of friendly competition to the proceedings.

This interactive segment not only brought the audience together but also added an extra layer of amusement, making the event truly memorable and enjoyable for all
