SHREE VISA OSHWA

Vikas Shah - Tournament Convener

The Astro Cup 2018, powered by Guardian Bank and supported by Carabao Energy Drink was held for 3 days starting on 20th September 2018 and finishing on 22nd September 2018.

The first ever Astro Football Tournament organised by Visa Oshwal Community with 55 teams in 4 different categories: Under 12, Under 16, Over 16 and Ladies. The tournament was based on 6 a side game with 4 rolling subs.

With such a strong turnout and eventually a success, we make this an annual tournament as we promote football - which is already very popular within the community.

We want to bring out the best of these footballers; we have seen exemplary skills on display and hope to achieve peace, love and unity amongst all.

Samvatsari, September 2018

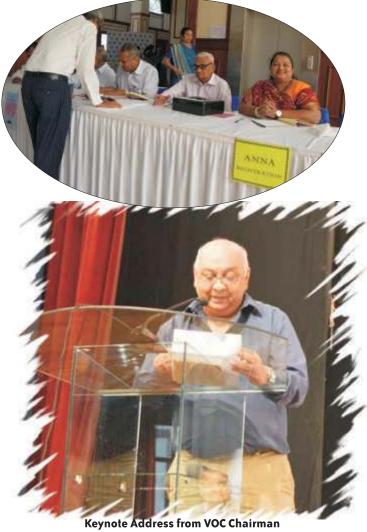

"Samvatsari" is the festival of forgiveness, which is celebrated by Jains on the last day of Paryushan. Shree Visa Oshwal Community organizes this magnanimous lunch every year after the Paryushan festival with support from community members. This year the Samvatsari Luncheon was on Sunday, 30th September 2018.

An approximate 4,500 members of all ages, attended the program which kicked off with a brief speech from the Shree Visa Oshwal Community Nairobi Chairman Mr. Dhiraj Devan Dodhia. With volunteering being a key service for the function, hundreds of volunteers took various stations serving meals and clearing stations.

"Today is all about celebrating Swami Vatsalya. We celebrate Samvatsari after Paryushan Parva is over. Here we meet each other, sit together and eat as a community," stated the Chairman of the Religion Committee - Dr. Kantilal Devshi Gudka.

Newly Refurbished Kitchen

Dishwasher Equipment

Assessing of the new Kitchen Equipment

From the powerful dishwasher machine to the ultra-modern high capacity oven and roti maker the new refurbished kitchen is a wonder.

All marveled at how easily and efficiently the tasks are handled in minimal time.

Baking cookies for example is not an easy task for 3,000 guests, it can be a daunting and tiring task for the cooks. The high capacity oven has opened doors to explore more diverse menus and incorporate modern cooking.

Time for washing dishes has reduced thus promoting the efficiency of the operations of the kitchens.

Book of the Month - The Book Thief Nazi Germany,

One girl, One story, One narrator: Death!!!

The Book Thief is Markus Zusak's take on the life of a young girl named Liesel Meminger. She is, at the beginning of the tale, faced with a newfound obsession with books. Books she cannot read.

Death appears as an old friend, a third party, a witness to the events happening around our characters. Who better, to tell the Holocaust's story than the 'Grim Reaper' himself. By the final chapter Zusak creates an understanding between reader and narrator, so much so that the final line of the novel speaks volumes: 'I am haunted by humans.'

Set during the highest point of Hitler's reign, the book showcases the growth of our main character. She begins the story faced with a new 'Mama and Papa' forced to come to terms that her real mother will never come back. The writer weaves a labyrinth of emotions like sadness, fear, curiosity and loss into a basket of one message: 'acceptance.'

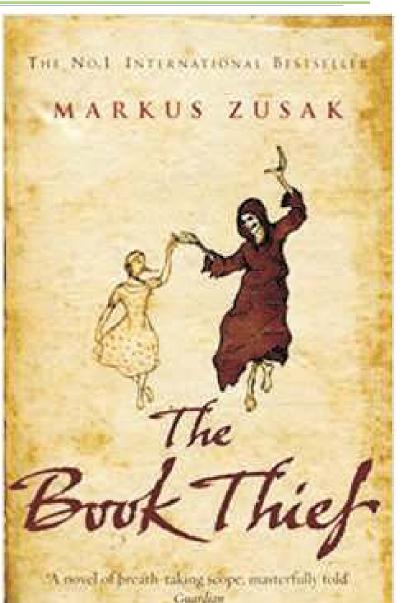

The death of her brother is a key point in her life having lost him before they made it to their foster family. She is haunted by nightmares that eventually lead to the formation of 'Night Classes' with her Papa, reading the first book she ever stole: 'The Gravedigger's Handbook.' Slowly but surely she becomes quite the reader, a reader with an insatiable need to feel 'the words.'

Zusak portrays the gruel of war from the perspective of German laymen. Very rarely do we have the opportunity to see the effects of the Fuhrer's reign on his own people.

The Book Thief tackles conflict among countrymen over issues like the systematic extermination of Jews, key focal points of the Second World War. It brings to light the issues faced if someone was to do the 'right' thing in a society so indoctrinated by fascism and fear.

The novel is a true eye opener on the intricate dealings of the human being. It teaches the reader a lot about compassion and thinking about the little things in life.

Zusak creates an atmosphere of togetherness in the lowest point of one's journey as seen through Liesel's relationship with her Mama the woman with the 'Iron Fist', her Papa the man whose eyes 'were made of kindness and silver' and her best friend Rudy, the boy with hair 'the colour of lemons' but more accurately the boy who christened her as 'The Book Thief.'
